

A video for you... "How to Skyrocket Your Sales"

A couple of quick things...

Firstly I wanted to share a video I recently recorded for those wonderful people over at Smarta - called "How to Skyrocket Your Sales". Definitely worth a look even if I say so myself :-)

Click here - or click on the image...

How to Skyrocket Your Sales

3 simple, no-nonsense techniques to skyrocket your sales!

Secondly, you're still in time to catch a very special one day event that's taking place this coming Friday in London...

"Optimise Your Business" - click here for details and to book

The event is being run by two very good friends, Shaa Wasmund and Mark Attwood - and I'll be making a guest appearance too!

Well worth considering - especially as you can get a ticket for just £67 when normally they're £197. You will need to enter the discount code 'leigh' to get the discount.

More details of the event here

Hope to see you on Friday

In the meantime have a great Tuesday!

Until next time
