A quick weekend reminder (or a Monday morning prompt depending on when you read this).

If you're like me you probably get lots of emails telling you what to do to get more sales.

The reality? First you need to plug the leaks i.e. cut out the mistakes.

If you haven't already, be sure to grab a copy of my complimentary guide "The 9 Biggest Sales Mistakes".

And if you have already done so...how many of these mistakes (if any) are you guilty of - and what's your next step?

The 9 Biggest Sales Mistakes

(you see others making of course)

Until next time
