

Saturday Update

Phew. Horrendous weather where I am, hope you're faring better!

I've been meaning to send something to you - and given this rainy Saturday morning, today is the day!

Check this video out - and have a think how much of it applies to you. (It's less than six minutes long). Click the image or click here to view

You've got the Passion?

You've got the Drive?

You're putting in the hours?

You've learned how to sell?

Yet it's still not happening for you, or not at the pace you'd like?

If this is an issue that you're grappling with, then I can offer lots of resources to help, most costing nothing at all. For example, check out our newsletter archive here - lots of articles tackling this and other associated issues.

And let's hope for better weather than today!

Until next time

Leigh
